So it seems kind of remarkable that men haven't fully embraced this principle when it comes to dreaded tasks like shaving, scrubbing, and brushing. "Using an electric razor or an air flosser is like the difference between swinging a hammer and using a nail gun," says Michael Gilman, founder of the Grooming Lounge. Use the accessories on the following pages to supercharge your grooming regimen—and look better than ever. This facial steamer hydrates your skin, boosts bloodflow, and makes exfoliation a breeze; the result is a much deeper clean. Related: How Often Do You Really Need to Exfoliate? Just fill it with water and direct the nozzle at your face for 15 minutes in the morning. Follow up with a cleanser; Pirooz Sarshar, founder of the grooming line PRZMan, recommends his Clean Getaway face wash ($15, przproducts.com). Dr. Dennis Gross Skincare Steamer Solutions $125, sephora.com 3 of 7 The Job Interview Don't let a shaving nick detract from that first impression. Take your morning shower and then turn on the Norelco 7700. "The steam and heat will lift and expose the hairs," says Sarshar. The razor's storage base also cleans, lubricates, and recharges the unit after each use, leaving you more time to triple-check that rockin' resume. Philips Sonicare Airfloss Pro $90, bestbuy.com 6 of 7 The Vacation This ultraportable vibrating razor helps you trim evenly and limits your risk of a shaving nick. But the luxe handle is the real selling point here—it'll last a decade. To soothe your face and restore moisture, use a vitamin-rich aftershave, says Gilman. For the best possible portrait, start by clearing oil and dead, acne-causing skin cells with Clinique for Men's sonic face brush. With 9,000-plus vibrations per minute, the charcoal-infused bristles dislodge bacteria and impurities to deep-clean your pores, Sarshar says. "It's like having a facial at home." Combining and saving stitch designs is very simple and the user can even create their own stitch patterns using the My Custom Stitch setting. The pre-set tension is a little too tight however, and the machine overall is quite large and heavy.
