How can android 17 keep up with goku. How does goku defeat android 17 and 18. What episode does goku fight android 17 and 18. Can goku beat android 17. Does goku fight android 17.

The discussion is generally universal in relation to all aspects of franchise (including films, fat, etc.) such as: techniques, relationships between characters, background frame, universe, and even more. Of course, it would be a hypothetical situation of a potar connection. If at that time, Goku decided to team up with Mr. Satan or Dendo, are there other options? For example, Android 17 may have survived the human extinction attack of Super Buu ... since it has not yet been discovered. Of course, this will also mean that Android 18 and Aale Norimaki will not suffer, but ... let's not mix Aale or Android 8 Potara with Goku. I mean WTF? Lol anyway, if Android 17 was sort of crazy, someone shot him with a bundle, then tried to find Super BU while Tien, Gokhan and Goku were fighting, so they looked at ... Until I come when Goku had to choose whoever he wants Goku does not find Android 17, but sees him from afar. Goku returns SSJ2 and loads to Android 17. Android's earring 17 deploys a potar ... and merges ... in ... I don't know ... G1K7. Laughing! Joking aside, Android 17 is stronger than 18. Perhaps this could mean that Android 17 could be the same or almost or perhaps a little more powerful than SSJ Goten and Trunks since Android 18 was able to survive two children. ... although it could have been a tournament battle ... not a death fight. I think that a combination of Goku and Android 17 could have a chance against Gohan Buu. It is if we assume that Android 17 can be slightly more powerful than SSJ Goten or Trunks. What if this combination was fighting Gohan Buu? How would it end? I think that without any absorption or rays of softness, this combination could have a chance. Of course, Chiao's was far away, but Goku could easily feel it and it was for him. Or do the same with Ko, Hell, Yajib and Korin, probably at that time because they were under surveillance. Goku can take him to the other world and merge with Piccon or Dabura, but ... Picon - Filler and ... News: 1971 Joined: 2012 February 23, 2012 at 11:39 am it's been a long time since the post. Of course, this would be a hypothetical polar merger situation. If Goku thought you were dating Mr. Satan or Dende at the time, were there other options? For example, Android 17th survived the Super Buu Extension attack... because it can't be sensed in any way. Of course, that would also mean that Android 18 and Aale Norimaki wouldn't be affected, but... we won't be doing AALE or AALE - Android 8 Polarian Fusion with Gock. I mean wtf? lol anyways if android 17 patted someone fired him and then tried to find super buu at that time ten gohan and goku fought buu and then watched...while gok was about to choose who fuses. Goku can't detect Android 17, but he can see it somehow. Goku converts SSJ2 and bolts towards Android 17. Put the possible earring's OS into Android 17... and they merge... I... don't want... G1K7. To laugh loudly! Just kidding though, Android 17 is more powerful than 18. Obviously this could mean that Android 17 could be the same or close to or maybe a bit more powerful than SSJ Goten and the trunks since Android 18 could expect two children. Although it's probably a tournament fight... not a fight to the death. I think Goku and Android 17 might have a chance against Gohan Buu. In other words, assuming that Android 17 can be slightly more powerful than SSJ Goten or Trunks. What if this convergence had a problem with Gohan Buu? How did it end? Without a takeover or candy bars, I think this merger would be possible. Now, of course, there was also the opportunity to get closer to your own or Chiao'tzu. Of course, Chiotzu was far away, but Goku easily sensed it and him. Or do the same with exceptions. Hell, Yajib and Korin were probably alive by then because they were a little shorter. Goku, he could be in another world and merged with pickon or natural but... Pickon is a stuffed animal and... GokuKnowing that Dabura is now "good"... and gay. Lol Abu Fuson (Tien-Goku and Chiao'tzu-Goku). I think it will last against Gohan Buu if the Tien-Goku fusion doesn't get the full tranche performance in Gohan Buu. But how strong would a fusion with Tjene or Chiao'tza be? Have character to compare. Interestingly, when we take the characters filling Dabura or Pikkon, how did they contact Goku, what would the power be and how does it lead against Gohan Buu? Even if Geo and he joins, I doubt Tenshinhan will change much of Goku's powers so that he can only defeat the same Boo forms he already did. The same goes for Chaotzy. 17 The merger will likely result in the combination of SS3's incredible base strength and infinite energy, so they would have a very good opportunity to be Gohan-Boo. After all, Gokuu didn't have enough time and wasn't in the right alignment to feel the chaos (perhaps relatively small) and teleported or teleported in beyond and bound to Paikhan. But the combination of Goku-17 won't work in my opinion. They were not as compatible as Gohan or Vegeta, which were much closer to its power, so gohan-bu won them. At first I thought so, but then I remembered that Potara is magical and I can probably find a way to do both jobs. I guess even magic has its limits sometimes. Potara isn't perfect, and as Gokuu thought, the Gokuu-Satan fusion probably wouldn't increase his power and even make him accept the Gokiunda fusion, since Denda wasn't even a warrior. Even if it was less, I think you'd still get disastrous results from mixing purebred Saiyans and Cyborgs, who are far from evenly matched with each other. You'd think that Kayoushin and Kibito teaming up would actually give an advantage against BU to keep both powers going, but the old Kayoshin shot it down immediately. As for Yajirobe and Karin...
