► A teen boy thrashes on a medical table as medical personal with hypodermic needles hold him and inject him; the boy is screaming for his father. A teen girl changes her clothes in a locker room and we see her wearing a sports bra briefly (partial abdomen and upper chest are seen). A grade school aged girl enters a kitchen and her mother reacts as if she doesn't know her; the woman locks the child in the garage and people wearing hazmat suits arrive to take her away as she cries and pleads for them to stop. DISCUSSION TOPICS - Epidemics, CDC, hope, fear, secrets, rules, orphans, loneliness, family, danger, trust, control, revolution. You can help us keep our independence with a donation. We welcome suggestions & criticisms -- and we will accept compliments too. A grade school aged girl lies in bed with her parents, she touches her mother's arm and the child's eyes glow orange, she hyperventilates and runs out of the room. In this dark world of fear and danger, could there possibly be a light at the end of the tunnel? ► A teen boy and a teen girl kiss tenderly. ► A teen boy uses his power to throw a man hard against a wall. The pace of this story seems to never slow. Never Fade, as a middle book in a series, just ratchets up the action and keeps us on the edge of our seats. Armed guards point their weapons at a teen boy, and then at each other and shoot each other dead (no blood is shown). While we read all emails & try to reply we don't always manage to do so; be assured that we will not share your e-mail address. A loud noise is played over loud speakers and many children scream and recoil, while one girl collapses unconscious. A teen boy and a teen girl flirt in several scenes. We've gone through several editorial changes since we started covering films in 1992 and older reviews are not as complete & accurate as recent ones; we plan to revisit and correct older reviews as resources and time permits. ► A young girl causes flashes of electricity and an explosion in an abandoned market. A husband and his wife lie sleeping in bed together clothed. ► A teen boy and a teen girl argue in several scenes. The Darkest Minds (2018) Add to guide Jump to: Certification Sex & Nudity (2) "One of the 50 Coolest Websites...they simply tell it like it is" - TIME A highly contagious disease kills the majority of young people, leaving only a few who exhibit powers that frighten the government enough that they are gathered and kept in internment camps. Perhaps she and readers will know in the third book. ► A teen girl wakes up handcuffed to a hospital bed and a woman talks to her while armed guards patrol the halls. Ruby and her friends don't get many breaks. Also with Bradley Ford, Mandy Moore, Gwendoline Christie, Harris Dickinson, Patrick Gibson, Wade Williams, Miya Cech and Skylan Brooks. A man tries to inject a girl with a hypodermic needle (presumably to kill her) and she grabs his arm and stops him by controlling his mind. Be aware that while we do our best to avoid spoilers it is impossible to disguise all details and some may reveal crucial plot elements. ► We see a flashback to many children running toward a tall, electrified fence, one teen breaks the fence down and the children pour through it as guards shoot many in the back (we see spots of blood on their clothing as they fall), and one girl falls as people run past her and a teen boy picks her up to get her to safety. There is also lots of violence and intensity. Rated: High. A 16-year-old girl (Amandla Stenberg) is helped to escape and bands together with a group of other young people to try to regain control of their future. Many people wearing hoods over the faces are lowered from helicopters, they remove their hoods and we see their glowing eyes as they roar and blow fire on the ground toward people as they scatter; several people are engulfed in flames and one teen boy is shown with charred skin on his neck and ear (we see him in the hospital later). We are a totally independent website with no connections to political, religious or other groups & we neither solicit nor choose advertisers. A teen girl is slammed to the floor of an abandoned mall by something unseen, a teen boy is then slammed on top of her, and they are both thrown into the air and into items in the mall nearly slamming into a display of weights (they are not harmed). Become a member of our premium site for just $2/month & access advance reviews, without any ads, not a single one, ever. School busses filled with children transport them to internment camps and people with weapons guard them. Many people with guns shoot at four people and they drop to the ground (no one is harmed). ► We see news footage with destruction caused by people with powers, like a police car is shown stuck in the side of a water tower. In this book, she's training with the Children's League, where she doesn't really want to be, but hoping that she can somehow figure out what will be best. Raises questions about refugees, authoritarianism, and children separated from their parents. We are a totally independent website with no connections to political, religious or other groups & we neither solicit nor choose advertisers. A teen girl's voiceover says, "Half my class was dead." A woman tells a teen girl, "If they catch you, they will kill you." A teen boy sees another teen boy attacking a teen girl and he says, "I'll kill him." LANGUAGE 4 - 7 scatological terms (one is a teen boy saying "BS"). 4 anatomical terms, 4 mild obscenities, name-calling (dumb, slip kid, stupid, chubs, bounty hunters, cruel, reckless, baby, idiot), exclamations (shut-up, jeez), 5 religious exclamations (Oh My God, My God, Oh God). An armed guard yells at a teen girl, another teen girl talks back to him and he grabs her by the hair. [1:45] SEX/NUDITY 2 - A teen girl opens the door of a bathroom to a teen boy and she is wearing a towel wrapped around her (we see bare shoulders and some cleavage) as they talk. A teen girl hides in a locker room and is ushered to a car where a guard questions the driver and the girl is nearly caught and sent back to an internment camp. A teen boy puts a teen girl on a bed and she wakes up panicked as he lies on top of her and she hits him and gets away. A woman in a car shoots at a van with four young people in it, they speed along roads and another car rear ends the first car as a teen boy in the van uses powers to make winds blow and spray leaves across the cars and roadway, the road cracks up and heaves and one car is forced off the road while the other stops short of a fallen tree across the road. Our ratings and reviews are based on the theatrically-released versions of films; on video there are often Unrated, Special, Director's Cut or Extended versions, (usually accurately labelled but sometimes mislabeled) released that contain additional content, which we did not review. A guard points his own weapon to his chin and fires (we hear the sound; we do not see blood). She does get to see what's happened with Liam and Chubs, and, of course, there are developments that challenge her notions of what's been told to her. A woman hits a teen girl and a teen boy in the head with a gun (we see blood on the girl's head) and handcuffs the boy, and the woman moves to the teen girl preparing to kill her but she is stopped; we see another teen boy and a girl gagged and bound next to a van. A guard holds a man by the throat and yells at him, and then drops him to the floor and leaves the room; a person with a bag over his head is pushed into the room, he pulls off the bag and roars as his eyes glow red and we hear the first man scream from outside the room (he was apparently killed by the glowing-eyed character). We welcome suggestions & criticisms -- and we accept compliments too. Directed by Jennifer Yuh Nelson. MESSAGE - Survival can be difficult, but it helps to be cunning. ► A teen boy puts a teen girl on a bed and she wakes up panicked as he lies on top of her (please see the Violence/Gore category for more details). VIOLENCE/GORE 5 - A teenage boy yells at an armed guard and he is struck in the face with the butt of a gun (we see his bloody face); the guard that struck him then holds her gun to her chin and fires (off-screen with no evident blood) killing herself and the boy is beaten repeatedly by many other guards. This second book in a gripping dystopian series picks up the action from the first, The Darkest Minds, and just keeps running. | profanity glossary | SUBSTANCE USE - A man tries to inject a girl with a hypodermic needle (presumably to kill her), and there are several conversations about a cure for a disease. There are between 15 and 20 uses of strong language (mostly thanks to one particular new character) and plenty of other milder language. While we read all emails & try to reply we do not always manage to do so; be assured that we will not share your e-mail address. A helicopter crashes to the ground and explodes and it is implied that it lands on a teen boy. Many boys and girls of varying ages dance together; one teen couple dances close and the girl rests her head on the boy's chest. A teen boy punches another teen boy 3 times hard in the face and a man continues to punch him and kick him when he is on the ground (we see blood on the boy's face). Children in internment camps are shown wearing clothes of the same color and marching to buildings where they are forced to work under heavy guard. A teen girl wears a low-cut evening gown that reveals cleavage and her bare upper back and a teen boy remarks about her appearance. A woman wears a low-cut top that reveals cleavage. Liam and Chubs are out there, and she hopes they're safe; after all, she wiped Liam's mind clean of memories of the two of them together in the hope she could keep him away from the dubious work of the League. A teen boy and a teen girl move close to each other and nearly kiss. But the twists and turns keep coming, for readers and for Ruby and the other kids with special abilities. And you will be helping support our website & our efforts. ► A grade school aged girl seated at a cafeteria table shakes uncontrollably, her eyes glow, she crushes a drinking cup in her hand and collapses dead on the floor (no blood is shown) as we hear a voiceover describe an epidemic of a highly contagious disease affecting all young people and killing most of them.
