Ah, Android and its beauty! Without a shadow of a doubt, it has overcome when it comes to flexibility and customizability - its larger rivals (iOS and Windows Phone) literally do not have a chance in this race of a horse. Thanks to this fundamental aspect of Android, almost all producers there usually take a home interface and make it suitable for your liking. Probably the easiest way to do it is installing a 3rd personalized party launcher. Not only custom launchers offer you a different look, they also come with a wide range of Nifty personalization features and options that are rarely found in UIS shares. Moreover, most thirds usually lighter and more smooth, which is always welcome, isn't it? Ok, but ... how do you change the launcher of their device? It is rather simple and simple. Installation is easy, but set it as the default startup program requires an additional touch or two. Android will automatically ask you which of the installation has been completed. Most launchers will also guide you through the process of setting the predefined ones. Also, if the device is running Android 4.4 Kitkat or higher, you can also select the default launch via the settings menu - Only Lì head only and search for the default application submenu. The APEX APEX launch is one of the most popular habits the launchers available at this time, with over one million installations in the game store and an average rating of 4.5 stars. As most launchers on our list, it offers almost endless customization options, the complete home screen and control of the app drawer, gesture settings and tons of icons, themes, launch animations and transition effects. There is also a paid version that adds more functionality to a free spear already formidable Launcher Buzz Buzz Buzz Buzz is a bit of anomaly on Launcher's phase, with such a unique aspect it is difficult to forget. Buzz has left a sign over a million mind store minds, gaining a 4.4-star rating for a good reason. This sets Buzz Apart is that you allow you to install customized custom screens and themes shared by other buzz users. So you don't have to find your idea workmanship, you can simply borrow that of someone else. Buzz is unbeatable if you want a new radical look on your Android without investing any effort to create it alone. Action Launcher sa newcomer who has caught a lot of attention in a very short time. The pitcher has already excess of one hundred thousand installations on the Play Store, with a very impressive rating of 4.5-star hotel reviews. It offers the possibility of a simple launcher with a screen with customizable widgets A ¢ â, ¬ "and roofs, which allow you to group similar apps within folders, but still open the cover app with a single tap.nova launcher holds a Point on smartphone practically all. With over five million installation stores installations, fans cannot be wrong, with Nova, marking an impressive 4.7-star user rating. Nova is quite similar to APEX and offers very the same But Nova is practically the pitcher for anyone who is not very familiar with pitchers. You really can't go wrong with this. No launcher for anyone who is not very familiar with pitchers. You really can't go wrong with this. in terms of how radically different this launcher is compared with anything else on this list. All the best features are not free, as with most launchers, but what the premium version is missing in free-ness, compensation in wow-ness. If you want a hi-tech warning, pay attention to your phone, try the free version and try to withstand the update. They say an image is more than a thousand words, so the following video is basically a thesis on the next launcher for a WoW Effect.adw launcher store. By covering Android versions from 1.6 up to 4.1, ADW launcher covers everything you can want from a free pitcher: customizations, themes, widgets, skins, icon pack and gesture settings. All you would like to a complex launcher ex go launcher ex g Smart Launcher Smart Launcher Smart Launcher takes things and turns them into it. Instead of rows and ordered boxes, Smart Launcher gives you the most commonly used app rings and vertical waterfalls of the categorized apps. It also connected with a 4.6 star based on over five million installations. Save to your needs and your habits. Yandex Launcher and also activates the dialer and contacts. Yet another million happy customers voted in 4.4 stars and some of the AndroidPit team I swear. It is clean and clean with a little pizzazz thrown to a good extent. For the ordered types that love a home Android everthy testme launcher, this is still in beta, so you will have to forgive the occasional bug, but still, over a million satisfied users ranked it at 4.5 stars anyway. Everythreeme's special take is that it suits what is on your phone to whatever you are interested at that time. So every search you make a complete restyling of your phone along with it. Learn from Te.Zeam Launcher Zeam is a favorite Android among many users, especially for those who are a great fan of minimalism and small app size (this is only 388K). Zeam Launcher provides a clear overview thanks to the layout of intuitive folders and the app grilled with the vertical roll. You can also add shortcuts to the grid and manage backgrounds. For minimalist types with little spaceyahoo aviate aviate launcher storage, compared to zeam, it is much more complex: categorize your apps depending on the day, viewing the apps that you take that you need at that specific moment. For example, when you wake up, you will be welcomed by the time and program the apps. On the road to work, you will show you the maps to get traffic information and direction. I think you have the gist. The launcher focuses on various themes as futuristic, minimum, beautiful etc. All icons, widgets and backgrounds will transform to go with the style you have chosen, giving your user interface a unified appearance. The launcher is also equipped with a function of intelligent categories that categories that categories that categories that categories will show you all the themes simultaneously. Cover, up to the beta phase, is like the Glovebox Launcher we have recently discovered, but better. Learn also from your smartphone habits and makes it easier to get the apps you need, when you need it. The difference compared to a And aviate is that it has app up to the right or left side of the screen above the upper part of the app you are using at the time and on the lock screen. Furthermore, the coverage allows you to set various volumes of ringtone and wallpapers depending on the time of day. A cool way to keep your apps organized and easy to reach the launcher, the sliding launcher does not offer the same enormous quantity of functionality of other launchers, which has its pros and cons. On the positive side, this makes the launcher suitable for devices that have less power than the latest flagships. It is primarily aimed at smartphone users who do not buy a new phone every year also have the chance to change their device's appearance and functionality. The app is not too complex and does not use the resources of your device, which is said, it can already do a lot. When the launcher starts, the top of the display shows the time and time and below the room for shortcuts. The app drawer is positioned directly on the main screen. For beginners with older phones. Illuminated launcher starts, the top of the display shows the time and t main Perk is this: this launcher is available without frills, so no 3D animation for changing widgets or screen storage. However, there are still many settings that you can adapt to your needs. You can also generate many domestic screens as you simply prefer to show off, at the bottom left and right. In the free mode, you are able to rotate, move or zoom all items freely. However, the launcher is recommended for more experienced Android enthusiasts thanks to its complexity and freedom of design. For more experienced Android users. Google Now Launcher Okay, this is as matrices you get - Google's internal launcher is most likely scores from those who dig the look and feel of Android vanilla, despite the relative scarce of options and features in comparison with some others Popular pitchers. However, Google Now (just a Swipe shot) and invokes Google's voice search directly from the main screen (courtesy of the unitresent "Okay, Google!" Phrase). Take a look if you feel so that the pure Android experience is the best Android experience. Me Launcher Xiaomi's Phones Ship with the Roma of the Company, Miui. Its signature feature is the lack of ... an app drawer, which makes it seem like a peculiar mix between iOS and Android. The philosophy behind the pitcher is exactly the same thing, it is your app drawer and scatter your apps on different domestic screens. Don't turn the heads, Android Die-Hards! Mi Launcher is surprisingly easy to use and it's likely to end up loving him at the end of the day. However, it is equipped with a quite limited quantity of customization functionality, which could be a deal-breaker.dodol launcher one of the strongest points of Dodol Launcher is the abundance of themes available for this. Apart from the wide amount of these, Dodol Launcher is also rather customize various aspects of its interface. Performance-wise, the Dodol launcher is regular and should be more than acceptable for the average Android user. Oh, and we said that this launcher is completely free? free?
