The mites are contagious and can be transmitted from dog to dog, so it is important to have your puppy checked as soon as possible if you think there is something else in progress. Only about everyone knows everything about the inclination's head of the dog that will surely dissolve your heart. Have you noticed that when you talk to your dog looks at you and then tilt his head? This is the animal that is curious. The dogs tilt their heads as a way to adjust the external ears so they can hear you better. Photo Courtesy: Vizslafotozas / Pixabay A dog tilts its head while speaking is hung on every word that proceeds from the mouth. Your pet is attentive and wants to know if you have something to say Å º especially when it comes to a trip to the park! While most of the things that dogs do are nice, there is a couple that they simply don't. You can also say that they are disgusting. This takes us to the annuor. If your dog meets another dog and immediately sniffs her seat, this is totally normal. Photo: Alexas Fotos / Pixabay Seat sniff is the equivalent of a human that shakes the hand of another human. Your dog is trying to know another dog Å º Å º "or a human. Yes, dogs sometimes also do the human sniper. Ah, the tail. A favorite pastime of many dogs. Dogs chase their queues for a variety of reasons, but most of the time is all in good fun. A puppy can chase his tail because he does not realize that he is attached to the dog's body. An older dog can chase her tail just because the animal is clumsy and playing. Photo of courtesy: Stux / Pixabay However, this happens even when something else happens. It's possible that your dog has fleas needs of its subsidiaries anal glands examine, especially if the tail chase is a frequent event. Does your dog eat grass when it's out? While this behavior is normal, it is a cause of concern. Most of the time, a dog eats grass for one of the two reasons. Your pet is or lacks a specific nutrient in its diet or trying to make itselfThe worst scenario? The dog has bowel worms. courtesy photo: MAKY OREL/Pixabay No matter what the reason is, eating grass is not a good thing. You should talk to your puppy's diet veterinarian and general health if the dog is eating grass whenever you go for a walk. A dog eating their feces is very likely on a drug that does not digest properly. If this medication comes out in the dog's stool, the animal can be authorized to reforest it, which is nothing serious. Photo Courtesy: Katrina S/Pixabay Some mother dogs eat the feces of their puppies in the effort to keep children clean. While eating feces is not considered harmful (unless your dog has worms), you should discourage your dog to do this. If you're out, take your dog's poop now. If your dog uses a pad, try distracting the animal immediately after it falls. The singing canine is usually not a cause of concern. Some dogs mount or hump sexually even after being neutered or spayed. Dogs practice behavior instinctively, especially if they are not altered. Dogs can also hump like a way of flirting. courtesy photo: ArtTower/Pixabay While some people think that the dog singing is a sign of hormones, this behavior is often a way to exercise the domain. Your dog can make another dog, a human or even a toy, but it's usually nothing to worry about, even if it's super embarrassing. Have you ever noticed that your dog touches you all the time? If your pet is ying right next to you or cozy at your feet, this is the totally normal behavior. The dog not only wants you to know it's there, but also wants to make sure he knows if you leave. Resting on your feet, the dog will be forced to wake up if you get up from the seat. Photo Cortesia: PublicDomainPictures/Pixabay A dog resting on the feet can also be a way to mark its territory. You're dog humans, and the animal wants everyone to be clear about this. Dogs are very intelligent creatures, and try to communicate everything they can. If your dog raises a single leg in your presence, it could be requiring your attention. Nine times out of 10, your dog does this to let you know she wants to play. courtesy photo: YamaBSM/Pixabay However, your dog can also raise its paw because it wants you to comb it. You'll know why the animal will probably put that leg up on your arm. When you stop caressing, the paw will reappear. Your pet can also do this to let you know that it is hungry. A dog moving her legs or barking her in her sleep is very likely to have a vivid dream. If your dog is laying on its side and feet move, the animal probably dreams of chasing a rabbit bunnyA field or something similar exciting. Photo of courtesy: Vivros62 / Pixabay Most of the time, a dream dog is nothing to worry about. If you notice that your dog's stature is more rigid, however, it is possible that he is having a crisis. If you are worried, gently try to wake up On. Dogs can be excited relatively easily from a deep sleep, but don't wake them if you think they are having an attack. Yawning is not a difficult behavior to understand. Like humans, dogs yawn when they are tired. Dogs dress very nice and can also be highlighted with a bit of a bark. Dogs can also yawn if yawned, which further demonstrates the theory that abuse is contagious. Photo of courtesy: Jaclou-DL / Pixabay There is too much to worry about when your little dog runs out a big yawn. It might be time to let the dog calm down for a while and take a little shuteye much need. Being a dog is so rusty. See what we did? -
